Section H: Goods and services tax (GST)

Entities cannot register for GST if they are not carrying on an enterprise.

Some entities are required by law to register, while others may choose to voluntarily register for GST.

It is recommended that you read GST for small business (NAT 3014) if you are unfamiliar with GST.

See 'Useful products and services' on page 18 of the Instructions for information on how to obtain this guide.

28 Is the entity required by law to register for GST?

An entity is required to register:

 if it is carrying on an enterprise and its GST turnover (see instruction for question 31) is $75,000 or more ($150,000 or more if the entity is a non-profit organisation)

- if it supplies taxi or limousine travel for fares
- if it is a representative of an incapacitated entity (where the incapacitated entity is registered or required to be registered), or
- if the entity is a resident agent acting for a non-resident (where the non-resident is registered or required to be registered).

No
Yes	Go to question 30

29 If the entity is not required to register for GST, is the entity volunteering to register?

An entity which is not required by law to register for GST can choose to register voluntarily for GST if it is carrying on an enterprise, or intends to carry on an enterprise in the near future.

No	Go to section J: Pay as you go (PAYG) withholding
Yes

30 What is the entity's date of registration for GST?

When an entity is required by law to register for GST, its date of registration is the date when:

- its GST turnover met or exceeded the threshold turnover of $75,000 (or $150,000 for non-profit organisations). Please note that the threshold turnover is GST-exclusive.
- it commenced supplying taxi or limousine travel for fares
- it commenced representation of an incapacitated entity

■ it commenced in its capacity as a resident agent for a non-resident.

Where an entity is volunteering to register for GST, it may choose its date of registration.

(1) The date of registration for GST cannot be before the ABN registration date provided at question 16.

31 What is the entity's GST turnover?

The entity's GST turnover is the greater of its current and projected GST turnovers, which are calculated as:

- current GST turnover is the value of all supplies made or likely to be made in the current month plus the previous 11 months
- projected GST turnover is the value of all supplies made or likely to be made in the current month plus the next 11 months

$20 million and over	You must select 'monthly' at a question 11, and provide a

32 How often will the entity lodge its activity statements?

- If the entity's GST turnover is:
- $20 million or more it must lodge its activity statement monthly
- less than $20 million it can choose to lodge its activity statement either quarterly or monthly.

Annually

If the entity is registering voluntarily, it may choose to lodge activity statements either monthly, quarterly or annually.

Monthly Quarterly

IN-CONFIDENCE — when completed

See Instructions page 12

33	Does the entity intend to account for GST on a cash basis or a non-cash (accrual) basis?		See Instructions page 13
	There are two ways for accounting for GST. They are:
	cash basis – accounting for GST on a cash basis means the entity accounts for the GST for its sales when it receives payment for them non-cash (accrual) basis – accounting for GST on a non-cash basis (accruals) means that the entity will account for GST on its sales when it has issued an invoice or received any part of the payment, whichever occurs first.
	Not all entities are allowed to account for GST on a cash basis.	Cash	Non-cash (accrual)
	You must read page 13 of the Instructions before nominating the cash basis.

34 Does the entity import goods or services into Australia?

Yes Read page 13 of the Instructions if you want information about deferring GST on imports.

Section I: Fuel tax credit

A fuel tax credit can be claimed for diesel and petrol used in eligible business activities.

Diesel and petrol when used in:

- road transport (in vehicles with a gross vehicle mass greater than 4.5 tonne)
- generation of electricity.

Diesel only when used in:

rail or marine transport

- certain primary production activities (for example, agriculture, fishing and forestry)
- mining.

No

In addition, other fuels (including diesel, petrol, kerosene, heating oil and toluene) are eligible when used:

- in burner applications such as heating
- for any other non-fuel use such as a solvent or as an ingredient in the manufacture of other products (for example, paints or plastic).

The entity cannot claim a fuel tax credit for fuel used for road transport in a vehicle with a gross vehicle mass of 4.5 tonne or less.

35 Does the entity need to register for a fuel tax credit?

To register for a fuel tax credit, the entity must also be registered for GST.

No Go to Section J: Pay as you go (PAYG) withholding

Yes

36 From what date does the entity expect to be eligible for a fuel tax credit?

This date cannot be before the GST registration date, provided at question 30, or 1 July 2006, when the fuel tax credit commenced.

Section J: Pay as you go (PAYG) withholding

The entity will need to register for PAYG withholding if it is required to withhold amounts from payments it makes to payees such as:

- employees (salary and wage)
- contractors or subcontractors under a voluntary agreement, or
- labour hire workers.

The entity will also need to register if it is required to withhold an amount from payments to:

suppliers who have not provided an ABN, or certain non-residents.

No

Yes

Is the entity required by law to register for PAYG withholding? 39

Go to question 44

On what date will withholding commence?

This date cannot be before the ABN registration date provided at guestion 16.

40 How many employees does the entity estimate it will pay?

This information is used to provide you with the correct number of payment summaries at the end of the financial year.

Do not include people under a voluntary agreement or labour hire arrangement.

41 What amount does the entity expect to withhold from payments to its payees each year?

This amount is called the estimated annual withholding amount. It is used to determine how often the entity will pay amounts withheld to the Tax Office.

Where the withholding amount is expected to be:

- less than or equal to $25,000 the entity will be required to pay guarterly
- between $25,001 and $1,000,000 the entity will be required to pay monthly
- greater than $1,000,000 the entity will be required to pay more frequently.

(If the entity falls in this group we will send you more information.)

42 How will the entity provide its PAYG withholding payment summary annual report to the Tax Office?

At the end of each year entities are required to lodge an annual report if they have made withholding payments. There are different annual reports for different payments made. Entities that have employees and other workers will need to lodge a PAYG withholding payment summary annual report.

This annual report may be lodged by paper, using forms supplied by the Tax Office, or electronically.

Please indicate the method you plan to use to lodge the entity's PAYG withholding payment summary annual report.

Section K: Financial account details

45 What are the entity's financial institution account details for Tax Office refunds?

Refunds will only be paid directly into a recognised financial institution account located in Australia. The account details provided must be held by:

the entity (solely or jointly) the entity's registered tax agent, or a legal practitioner acting as trustee or executor for the entity.

If you do not provide these details, we cannot refund money owed.

If the account you wish to nominate for refunds is not one of the four complying account options presented above, you can request the Commissioner of Taxation to exercise his discretion to pay electronic funds into the account of a third party. For more information phone 13 28 66 between 8.00am and 6.00pm, Monday to Friday.

Section L: Associates of the entity

These questions collect information about all individuals and organisations associated with the entity.

Examples of types of associates are:

- companies the public officer and all directors (individuals only)
- partnerships all partners (may be individuals, companies, trusts or a combination)
- trusts all trustees (may be individuals or companies)
- other organisations all office bearers, for example, president, treasurer or secretary (individuals only), or public officer (if applicable).

Tax file number disclosure

You are not required by law to quote a tax file number (TFN), but not quoting it increases the risk of administrative error and may delay this registration. If we cannot identify an associate from the information you provide, you may be contacted for more information.

If an individual who is a public officer, director, office bearer, partner or trustee chooses not to disclose their TFN, they must provide on a separate sheet of paper their residential address with the application. Similarly, if an entity other than an individual chooses not to disclose its TFN, it must provide on a separate sheet of paper its business address, the date it commenced, registered or became incorporated and, if applicable, its ACN or ARBN with the application.

46 If the entity is a company, who is its public officer?

Companies must provide details of their public officer.

Every company is required to appoint a public officer, for tax purposes only, within three months of commencing a business. A public officer must be a natural person of at least 18 years of age, who is appointed by a company and answerable for all actions on behalf of the company for tax-related purposes. Examples include record keeping and submitting company tax returns.
